Democratic County Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, at Wolf's Hotel, in Gettysburg, on Saturday last, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democratic voters of Adams county be, and they are hereby, requested to meet at their usual places of Holding Delegate Elections, on Saturday, the 28th day of JULY instant, for the purpose of choosing Delegates to represent them in a County Convention to be held in Gettysburg on MONDAY following, (July 30th,) at 10 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a County Ticket, appoint Congressional Conferrees, and transact such other business as may be deemed necessary. The Delegate Elections to open at 5 and close at 7 o'clock, P. M., in all the Districts except in Gettysburg—in the latter place to open at 7 and close at 9 o'clock, P. M.

The Delegate Election in Union township to be held this year at Sell's Station.

JACOB BRINKERHOFF, Chrm.
H. J. MYERS, Sec'y.

July 2, 1866.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

By the call published above, it will be seen that the Delegate Elections in this county will be held on Saturday, the 28th instant, and the Convention on the following Monday, the 30th. It is to be hoped that the elections will be well attended, and the best men in the several districts sent as delegates. We have wily foes ready to take any advantage, to contend with. Their candidates are pledged to unceasing labor during the canvass, whilst the leaders will stop at nothing to carry the country. The Democratic Convention, therefore, owes it to the party to act circumspectly, and present the best ticket possible. By so acting, the doing of the Convention will command such general respect as to lead to certain success.

THE CONVENTION AT READING.

The largest preparations are being made for the Democratic State Mass Convention, to be held at Reading on Wednesday next, the 18th. The Democratic Clubs in twelve or fifteen counties will be there, including the Keystone, of Philadelphia, now under the Presidency of Hon. Richard Vaux, with a number of Ward Clubs; the Soldiers' Clymer Club of York, under Col. Marsh; the Harrisburg Club, the Easton Club, the Lancaster Clubs, (citizen and military,) and many others. Besides, there will be thousands there not connected with such organizations—Excursion trains will run to Reading from Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Lancaster, Columbia, Pittsville, Easton, &c. Whilst the crowd is expected to be very great, (which every Democrat ought to be glad to see,) none should be deterred from going by the fear of not finding accommodations. Reading is a large place, and the Democracy of the city and county will see to it that all visitors have comfortable entertainment. We trust that this county will be well represented.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Lancaster Intelligencer says that the response of the people and of the press of the country to the call for a National Union Convention is general, and the gathering will be the largest and most important that the country has seen since the war began.

Southern papers exhibit a very general disposition on the part of the people to respond to the call, and State and district Conventions are being called to nominate delegates.

Governor Orr has issued an address to the people of South Carolina, in which he heartily approves of the objects of the Philadelphia Convention, and urges upon them the duty of immediately electing delegates to the State Convention which meets at Columbia on the first of August to appoint delegates to the National Convention. The Governor says: "There is not one principle of this address to which this State cannot subscribe in honor and with sincerity."

The radicals may rage as they please in regard to this Convention. Many of the best men of the Republican party will be there, the whole country will be represented, and in all respects it will be one of the most influential and important political gatherings the country has ever seen.

FORNEY IN THE DUMPS.

Mrs. Swisswell, the Radical editor, is the Washington correspondent of the Chambersburg Repository. In last week's paper is a letter in which she says:

John W. Forney, Wilkinson, late correspondent of the New York Tribune here, and other men of that stamp, have been feeling gloomy during the past week and talking of "stormy times" ahead.

When such men as Forney feel gloomy in regard to the political situation the people have good cause to rejoice. The reign of the thieves is drawing to a close.

Good News to Tax-payers.—It will be refreshing news to the overburthened tax-payer to learn that a proposition has been made in Congress to increase the pay of members to $10,000 a year, and travelling expenses to boot, and that the party meets with much favor in that body. They now receive $3,000 per annum, and travelling expenses. The working classes will have to pay the piper.

It is rumored that Postmaster General Dennis has resigned, on account of his disagreement with the President. It is said that Harlan and Speed will follow. Let the country rejoice.

Thaddeus Stevens will be a candidate for United States Senator, say the Lancaster papers.

McConaughy is in favor of an extra session of the Legislature, to ratify the Constitutional Amendment. Of course, an extra session means extra pay!

Several battles have been fought between the Austrians and Prussians, and victory is claimed for each side.

Significant.—The negroes at Philadelphia were not allowed to mix in the ceremonies on the 4th. The soldiers would not permit it. The destructionists did not dare insist upon the presence of the negroes.

The Rumpers threaten to stay in session until after the Philadelphia Union Convention, so as to devise ways and means to save their bacon.

It is understood that the President will veto the Freedmen's Bureau Bill.

THE FOURTH AT TAMMANY HALL.

The Democracy of New York City celebrated the National Anniversary most appropriately and spiritedly at Tammany Hall. The old Wigwam was crowded and the celebration was a most decided success. Richard O'Gorman and S. S. Cox were the orators of the day, and they delivered most eloquent, hopeful and stirring addresses. Letters from numerous distinguished men were read, among others from President Johnson, Secretary Seward and Secretary Welles.

We publish the following paragraphs from Mr. Seward's letter, for the special edification of our neighbor of the Sentinel, who has so long admired and puffed him: It is said in excuse of the denial of representation, that the States and their chosen representatives still continue to be sedition and disloyal. I ask, Is Tennessee disloyal? Is Arkansas seditious? Are the Senators and Representatives of either of those States disloyal? I desire, in this respect, that each of the Houses of Congress shall apply the constitutional test with all the improvements of legislation upon it, and thus admit those states and representatives who are loyal, and reject only those against whom the crime of disloyalty shall be established.

I believe with the Tammany Society, that the Union was created to be perpetual, that the States are equal under the Constitution, that the restoration of the Union by the recent war ought to be acknowledged and recognized by all the members of the Federal Government;

the spirit of magnanimity and fraternity should prevail in all our councils, and that the South, having accepted of the lessons of the war, and relinquished the heresies of secession, should, just so far and so fast as she comes in the attitude of loyalty, and in the persons of loyal and qualified representatives, be admitted to her constitutional representation;

we have won, and we will, and forever, no North, no South, no East, no West, no divisions, but one united and harmonious people.

How can the Sentinel longer remain in the disunion ranks? Its position is wonderful, and can only be accounted for upon the supposition that Thad Stevens has "charmed" the editor into the most complete subserviency.

THE SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.

The Soldiers' State Convention, called to meet at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, the 1st of August, promises to be a very important demonstration. The Doylestown Democrat, edited by Col. W. W. H. Davis, says "the indications are that the Convention will be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Pennsylvania." We copy the following from the Democrat:

Colonel Forney is again on the anxious bench; he sees another "negro under the wood-pile." He becomes alarmed because, as he states, "Colonel W. W. H. Davis, of the Doylestown Democrat, is trying to get up a soldier's party in favor of Hester Clymer." We are sorry for the soldiers of this party for this purpose, but it is; but we are helping to bring this party together to express the indignation of the soldiers of Pennsylvania felt toward Stevens. Sumner, Forney & Co., for betraying them, and the cause for which they shed their blood. It is quite natural that Forney should become alarmed, for he begins to see a handwriting on the wall that will expose a perfidious plot by other soldiers and friends. The Convention of the 1st of August will expose anything of the kind ever before held in this State. The officers, soldiers and seamen of Pennsylvania will proclaim to the world that the fruits of their labor in the field shall not be used to divide the Union which they fought and bled to make whole. We are rejoiced that Colonel Forney shows his alarm. It is the best evidence that the movement is already having a powerful effect. The soldiers of this State will show him and all the world the fruits of division that they sought and bled neither to destroy the Union, nor raise the negro to their political and social equality.

SOLDIERS' HARVEST HOME.

The Democratic Soldiers of Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, intend holding a Democratic Soldiers' Harvest Home and Mass Meeting, under the auspices of the Soldiers' Democratic Club, on the 25th of the present month, to which all Democratic soldiers, sailors and citizens who favor the election of Hester Clymer and the restoration of all the States to their political rights, are invited. We are requested to extend a special invitation to the Democratic soldiers and citizens of Adams. Hon. Hester Clymer is certainly expected to address the meeting, at Columbia on the first of August to appoint delegates to the National Convention. The Governor says: "There is not one principle of this address to which this State cannot subscribe in honor and with sincerity."

The radicals may rage as they please in regard to this Convention. Many of the best men of the Republican party will be there, the whole country will be represented, and in all respects it will be one of the most influential and important political gatherings the country has ever seen.

John W. Forney, Wilkinson, late correspondent of the New York Tribune here, and other men of that stamp, have been feeling gloomy during the past week and talking of "stormy times" ahead.

When such men as Forney feel gloomy in regard to the political situation the people have good cause to rejoice. The reign of the thieves is drawing to a close.

The Supreme Court of this State has decided that Judges of Elections are bound to take the votes of "deserters," if such "deserters" have not been regularly tried, convicted and sentenced by a court martial. Judge Strong and the majority of the Supreme Court, take the ground that election boards cannot try the question of desertion. This is exactly the ground upon which we insisted last fall that the votes of non-reporting conscripts must be taken. But the Abolitionists made a great out-cry against the right of "deserters" to vote, and succeeded in getting their election boards to reject the votes of all whom they chose to charge with "desertion," whilst by their clamor and threats they frightened the timid so that they did not venture near the polls.

Now, LET IT BE UNDERSTOOD THAT THERE IS A MAN IN THE EXECUTIVE CHAIR AT WASHINGTON WHO WILL SEE THAT NO DESERTER IS BORED OF HIS RIGHTS. Be firm and all will be well.

CHEAP SHOW!

Call for a State Convention of Honorable Disenfranchised Soldiers and Seamen of Pennsylvania.

The Soldiers' Convention, which met in Pittsburgh on the 5th of June last, and which pledged their comrades in this State to the support of the radical measures of Congress, in opposition to the just and constitutional policy of President Johnson, and which renounced their votes to John W. Geary, the radical candidate for Governor, misrepresents the sentiments of the great mass of the officers and soldiers of Pennsylvania. In order that a true expression of opinion might have had from the late defenders of the government in the field, and to counteract the injury attempted to be done to the cause of the Union, it was deemed advisable by the late officers and soldiers of the Federal Army in this State to hold another Convocation.

A preliminary meeting of returned officers and soldiers, with this object in view, was held on Thursday, the 28th of June, when it was resolved to hold a State Convention at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, the 1st of August, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to be composed of such honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of Pennsylvania, as subscribe to the following doctrine, viz:

1. Who are in favor of carrying out, in good faith, the joint resolution of Congress, adopted July 22nd, 1861, which declared that, "This war is not prosecuted on our part in any spirit of oppression, but for any purpose of conciliation and salvation, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired." These were the conditions of the bond the soldiers signed and sealed in blood with the government, and a refusal to carry them out is a gross violation of a solemn agreement;

2. Who are in favor of restoring the State, lately in rebellion to all their constitutional relations with the Federal Union as they stood before the war was broken out;

3. Who are in favor of representatives from the South, loyal to the Constitution and the laws, being immediately received by Congress;

4. Who approve President Johnson's veto of the Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights Bills;

5. Who are opposed to any interference, by Congress, with the rights reserved by the Constitution, and who are opposed to the right of suffrage being conferred upon the negro;

6. And who are in favor of the election of Hester Clymer, Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, the representative of the constitutional and conservative doctrine stated above.

Each county will be entitled to send seven delegates to the convention; and where a county has more than one member in the House of Representatives, such additional members will be entitled to seven delegates each.

The delegates are to be elected by the honorable discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of the counties respectively.

In addition to the delegates selected, each county will be entitled to send a county committee of three, to advise the president of the convention; and where a county has more than one member in the House of Representatives, such additional members will be entitled to one county committee each.
